A New Look...Literally!

Spring is on its way, and for those involved in the Creative Minds Club, it’s time to break out some fresh paint and creativity! Advised by Ms. Cretin, the art teacher, and Ms. Petrunak, the librarian/English teacher, the Creative Minds Club is a newly established group at Bishop Carroll that focuses on developing and displaying the art and writing talents of those involved.

Meeting twice a week, the club is looking to liven up the hallways by undertaking mural projects. CMC hopes to create a literature wall outside of the library, as well as a wall representing the BC senior classes. All are welcome to join, and any donations or ideas are greatly appreciated by all!

Graduation 2012

BCCHS will celebrate a Baccalaureate mass on Tuesday, May 29, at Holy Name Church in Ebensburg. Mass seating is unlimited. The Graduation ceremony will be held on Wednesday, May 30, at the JFK Center at St. Francis University. Due to the venue, each senior will be allotted nine tickets for graduation. More information will be mailed in April.

Service hour opportunity

Hastings Borough has summer service hour opportunities. Please see Mr. Skura for an application.
Computer students excelling at BCCHS

Mr. Graffte’s first semester classes in Computer Applications I have now finished. They studied Word, Excel, Access, PowerPoint, Visual BASIC, and Java. The second semester students in Computer Applications I are working on Excel and are creating a gradebook.

Ms. Burley’s Programming I is using Java to create graphical interface programs that use loops, arrays, and conditionals. Students have created Java classes to perform the tasks that their objects need. Computer Applications II students are currently working on advanced Excel projects that use Visual BASIC and will soon do the same with Access.

Shoemaker performs at District Orchestra in February

Junior Eileen Shoemaker, daughter of John and Mary Ann Shoemaker of Ebensburg, recently represented Bishop Carroll at district orchestra held at Westmont Hilltop High School in February.

Shoemaker said music helps her to relax and is one of her favorite hobbies. “If I have free time, I’m using playing my fiddle while a family member or two accompanies me on the guitar,” she said. “District orchestra is a way to experience what it would be like to play professionally. I hope I also have learned the importance of practicing through the experience.”

While her uncle taught her the basics for the violin and she learned to play by ear, Shoemaker has been playing the instrument since she was eight. She played the violin 1 for the concert this year. Last year, she played violin 2, which was an easier part.

“My teacher, Frank Semkowski from Lewistown, where I used to live, taught me to read music,” said Shoemaker. “After taking lessons with him, I learned from a teacher who was a professional violinist. Since I moved here, my teacher is Mrs. Betsy Pike.”

All at BC enjoy Shoemaker’s music when she shares her talent playing at our monthly masses. She appreciated the work of music teacher Tim Baacke, as well.
